

Job Posting – Head Coach of the Austrian National Elite Orienteering Team

The Austrian Orienteering Federation (ÖFOL) is looking to fill the position of head coach of the Austrian national elite orienteering team (women & men) as of 01.01.2022.

Responsibilities:

- Head coach of the national elite orienteering team (women & men)
- Planning of the activities of the national elite team under consideration of international developments and allotted budget
- Detailed planning of and lead during the activities of the national elite team, including analysis and discussion of training & competition and feedback to athletes
- Preparation of the athletes of the national elite team for high level international competitions and coaching of the athletes during these competitions
- Coordination of the athletes' goals, long-term plans and concrete activities with the personal trainers, the regional training centers and the military high performance program
- Guidance and mentoring of the athletes of the national elite team during training camps and competitions and - as far as possible and in coordination with the personal trainers - also during the individual training cycles (via e-mail, telephone, ...) in regard to training and preparation for competitions
- Willingness to participate in the basic and advanced education of Austrian coaches and instructors
- Close contact with the sports coordinator of the Austrian Orienteering Federation

Requirements:

- Qualified and experienced orienteering coach with national-level coaching license or similar credentials
- „International top-level coach“ with experience well above the national level
- Extensive experience specific to coaching on an international level
- High flexibility in regard to work schedule
- Good social skills
- High commitment
- Fluent in German and/or English (in word and writing)
- Driver's license

Offer:

- Engagement via employment or service contract on a scope of 20 hours/week on average
- Suitable remuneration
- Time horizon: 3-5 years

Interested persons are invited to send their application with résumé and supporting documents in electronic form to office@oefol.at by August 29th 2021.

Sports coordinator Nathalie Huber and general secretary Karin Walch are happy to answer any questions in this regard. Contact via office@oefol.at.